

St. John's Chapel, Tower of London Chapel

London, UK

The historically significant and sensitive environment of St John's Chapel at The Tower of London demanded that there should be limited negative physical or visual impact. With creative flare and technical ingenuity a solution was realised using Design 360 luminaires alongside a wireless lighting control system.